Dear Friends:

Thank you for your gift of $351.00. The challenging economy continues to make it difficult for so many to put food on their tables. Today, the need for food assistance is, unfortunately, greater than it has ever been in Connecticut Food Bank's history.

For most of us, "hungry" evokes only a mild sensation, serving as a reminder that it is time to eat. But for an estimated 400,000 people in Connecticut, being hungry at some point during the year is an all-too-familiar painful condition. During the holiday season of celebrations and plenty, the food insecurity of individuals and families is especially poignant.

I am very grateful to you for sharing what you can to help your neighbors who must rely on food pantries, soup kitchens, emergency shelters and residential programs to meet their needs. On their behalf, I send you best wishes for a safe, happy and healthy new year.

Sincerely,

Nancy L. Carrington
President & Chief Executive Officer
